Title: MY Times With C-Jay

Ringinng!!! The school bell rang at Hillcrest Elementary School in Boise, Idaho. I got into my classroom, and while I was running for my seat, another kid and I collided. We got up and looked at each other. I asked him what his name was and he said C-Jay, I told him that my name was Alex. So we went to our desks and noticed that we sat together. We started to be friends, and so we talked until class started.

"It's time for recess kids!" the teacher said with excitement in her voice. Every body was excited.

C-Jay and I ran out to the field and played soccer with a bunch of other people. We played until the bell rang for us to go back to class.

Ever since we and C-Jay have been best friends I like him because he is really fun. Also he likes a lot of stuff I like.
